The Huntington Library Quarterly publishes articles on the literature, history, and art of the sixteenth to eighteenth centuries in Britain and America. Special emphasis is placed on: interactions of literature, politics, and religion; the social and political contexts of literary and art history; textual and bibliographical studies, including the history of printing and publishing; American studies, through the early nineteenth century; and the performance history of drama and music. HLQ received a top award in the 2009 competition of Council of Editors of Learned Journals (CELJ) for the special issue “Prison Writings in Early Modern England” (HLQ vol. 72, no. 2).
